Etymology

From audaz* + -warduz*, a traditional dithematic Germanic personal name. The compound is continued directly by Old English Ēadweard and Old Norse Auðvarðr. The second constituent continues Proto-Germanic -warduz* (‘guard, watch’), beside wardaz*¹, ultimately belonging to the PIE root wer-* (Lehmann 1986a: 394, s.v. wardja*).
