From pre-Germanic b^húg^h-ti-s*, from Proto-Indo-European b^héwg^h-tī-s* ~ b^hug^h-téy-s*, from root b^hewg^h-* (‘to bend; curve, arch’) with expected change from -g^ht-* > -ht-* via the Proto-Germanic spirant law. Related to beugana* (‘to bend, bow’).
