

faludaz Runic: 𐌺𐌰𐌳𐌹𐌳𐌰𐌿 Pronunciation: /'fɑ.lu.ðaz/noun · masculine · a-stem

Meanings

1. a hurdle; fence
2. an enclosed space, enclosure

Etymology

Uncertain. Possibly related to *falō ('a plain'), from Proto-Indo-European *polh2- via schwebeablaut of root *pleh2- ('flat'). The *-ud- suffix is reminiscent of similar suffixes for 'structure' (cf. Proto-West Germanic *rakud, 'structure, building; dwelling, house') and collectivity (cf. *weruda, 'band of men').
