

flakurōṇa

Pronunciation: /'ɸla.ku.rɔ:.nã/

verb · Weak class 2

Meanings

1. to beat repeatedly
2. to flutter

Etymology

Built from the verbal adjective *flakuraz ('flickering; fluttering; shaking, wavering') + *-ōnq (forms Weak class 2 verbs from adjectives). Grestenberger et al. (in press) cover Proto-Germanic iterative r-verbs in-depth and argue that they arose through the reanalysis of adjectival *(V)r-morphology as an event-modifying verbal suffix.
