habit, custom

Etymology

Unknown; possibly dissimilated from earlier *hwahtuz, from Proto-Indo-European *kʷók-tu-s, from *kʷék- ('to see, appear'), perhaps cognate with Old Irish cucht ('external appearance; colour'), Tocharian B kektseñe ('body'). Alternatively from Proto-Indo-European *kók-tu-s, from *kek- ('to be able, capable'), whence also *hagaz ('skilled, abled').
