

haimaz Runic: ᚱᚰᚱᚰᚱᚰ Pronunciation: /'xaj.maz/

noun · masculine · a-stem

Meanings

1. home
2. house
3. village

Etymology

From Proto-Indo-European kóymos* ('village, home'), either from o-grade form of key-* ('to be lying down, to settle') + -mos* (action/result noun forming suffix) (this derivation is preferred by Kroonen), or from tkóymos* ('settlement, dwelling'), from o-grade form of tkey-* ('to settle, dwell') + -mos* (action/result noun forming suffix). If the second proposal is correct, cognate of Sanskrit क्षेम (kṣéma) (kṣéma, 'basis, foundation; residing, resting, abiding at ease'), Lithuanian kaimas ('village, countryside') (though this could be a borrowing).
