

hakulaz Runic: ᚱᚰᚱᚱᚱᚱᚱ Pronunciation: /'xa.ku.laz/

noun · masculine · a-stem

Meanings

1. buckskin
2. coat, cloak

Etymology

Unknown, though probably related to Proto-West Germanic hōkīn* (‘kid’). For a semantic parallel from a potentially-related set of lemmas, compare Proto-Slavic kožǫ* (‘skin, leather’), from Proto-Slavic koza* (‘goat’).

Alternatively, derived from hakô* (‘hook’), thus "a coat buttoned with clasps".
