

hrōta Runic: ᚠᚱᚱᚩᚲᚩ Pronunciation: /'xɾɔ:.tã/

noun · neuter · a-stem

Meanings

roof

Etymology

Possibly from Proto-Indo-European kerd-* ('to cut (wood)? > to craft?'); compare Proto-Slavic korda* ('pile of logs'), and perhaps also Proto-Celtic kerdā* ('craft, skill') and Ancient Greek κέρδος (kérdos) (kérdos, 'profit'). Has also been compared to Old Armenian խրճիթ (xrċit, 'hut, cabin'), but Ĵahukyan considers this unlikely. Proto-West Germanic hrātu* ('honeycomb') may also be related.
