

hōdaz Runic:  Pronunciation: /'xɔ:.ðaz/

noun · masculine · a-stem

Meanings

shelter; cover; hood

Etymology

Traditionally derived from Proto-Indo-European kad^h*- ('to cover, protect') and compared to Latin cassis ('helmet'). However, Kroonen reconstructs the Proto-Indo-European form as koHt-ó-s* instead, and links the root to Proto-Germanic hattuz* ('hat'); see there for more.
