

lībanaḡ Runic: ᚦ | ᚦ | ᚦ | ᚦ | ᚦ Pronunciation: /'li:.βa.nǣ/

verb · Strong class 1

Meanings

to remain, to be left

Etymology

According to Kroonen from Proto-Indo-European leyp-* (‘to stick’), although the appearance of the voiced (unstressed) Verner alternant b is unexpected. The verb may be back-formed from an older verb with the voiced alternant, such as libjanaḡ*.

Less likely, from Proto-Indo-European leykʷ-* (‘to leave, remain, be left’).

See also librō* (‘liver’).
