

mōdaz Runic: 𐌿𐌺𐌿𐌸 Pronunciation: /'mɔ:.ðaz/

noun · masculine · a-stem

Meanings

1. mind, sense
2. zeal, boldness, courage
3. anger

Etymology

Appears to derive from a Proto-Indo-European *mō-tó-s, a lengthened grade nominal formation from a root *meh₁- ('to endeavor; will, temper'), which may be a semantic extension of *meh₁- in the usual "to measure" sense. Perhaps cognate with Latin mōs ('will, humor, wont, inclination, mood'), Proto-Slavic sъměti* ('to dare, venture, make bold').
