noun · masculine · a-stem

2. the corner of a piece of cloth or garment: lap, flap, fold
3. lap
4. womb
5. sheet
6. a line from the foot of a sail

Etymology

Possibly from Proto-Indo-European (s)kewd-* ('to throw, shoot, pursue, rush'), whence skeutana* ('to shoot'); cognate with Proto-Slavic kȕdati* ('to fling'), Sanskrit चोदति (codati) (códati, 'to impel'). The semantic development would be “to shoot out” > “to jut out” > “projection, edge”.
