

sīpaną Runic: ᚱ | ᚱ | ᚱ | ᚱ | ᚱ | Pronunciation: /'si:.pa.nã/

verb · Strong class 1

Meanings

to drip, to pour

Etymology

Perhaps from a Proto-Indo-European *seyp-, *seyb^h- ('to pour, dribble, trickle, sieve, strain, sift, run, drip'), whence also Proto-West Germanic *sibi ('sieve'). Speculated cognates outside of Germanic include Ancient Greek εἶβω (eíbō) (eíbō, 'to drip, spill') and Latin sēbum ('tallow, grease').
